

Publicity Team

The Publicity Team is responsible for advertising the upcoming events sponsored by the Women's Guild through various media, in advance, to meet deadlines including:

- newspapers and other publications
- websites
- television networks
- the Church bulletin and the Church marquee sign
- flyers and posters in businesses and establishments
- various road signs in the area

The Publicity Team meets and works with the various team members of each event.